IMPORTANT NOTICE

Residents of Minehead will be considered those that have lived full time, within the boundary of the Minehead Council Tax Area, for a minimum of the 12 months prior to death. Evidence of this residency must be proven. Residents who have moved into care, outside the area, will be considered eligible for up to one year after moving. A stillborn baby will be eligible if at least one parent qualifies as a resident. Quadruple fees are payable in respect of a person not a permanent resident of the Town of Minehead if this criteria is not met.

The charges for the display of memorials will be for a period of 10 years. Further 10 year periods may be purchased at 10% of the then current purchase price. For those memorials where the fee is not renewed, the Council reserves the right to remove the memorials and place them elsewhere in the Cemetery.

The Cemetery staff can be contacted on 01643 705243 to answer your enquiries.
